Images of poverty in our community:

- Joseph goes to school without breakfast because his family must spend part of its food budget to pay the rent.
- Tina, who is on a disability pension due to a back injury, must haul her groceries home in a cart because she can't afford bus fare.
- Mark doesn't take his blood pressure medications because he can't afford them on his $14 per hour job.
- Tim has $246 left for all his basic needs: food, clothes, personal care, laundry, etc. after he pays his rent of $475 in a run-down rooming house.
- Lucille spent her 75th birthday in a homeless shelter last year because she couldn't afford the rent increase that her landlord had imposed.
