LITS Circles proudly presents the following ONLINE educational opportunity to further your personal Truth and Reconciliation journey. This interactive session via ZOOM aims to build positive relationships between Indigenous and non-Indigenous through truth telling, sharing and open dialogue.

Strong Indigenous Voices and their Role

In this engaging event with Tina Stevens, Tina will describe the importance of hearing the wisdom of Indigenous Voices, the role these can have for us allies to make wiser choices.

We so often think that we non-indigenous people have the better answers toward a peaceful and eco friendly world. We don't!

Come, hear the wise voices Tina will present.
